RAIN BREAK MID-
WEST'S HOT WAVE*Eight Dead, Heavy Damage From Storms in New York State

By the Associated Press
Cooling winds and rainfall left most of the country relieved today of high temperatures which brought death and suffering.

Most of nearly two score fatalities attributed to the weather were directly due to drownings, Illinois alone recording six.

In the wake of high temperatures some sections found high waters a menace as rain swelled rivers, particularly in upper New York state and western Illinois.

The southwest remained in the grip of the heat wave while the thermometer dropped more than 20 degrees in some sections.

Retailers, who reported a sharp increase of summer merchandise, said farmers, watching crops spring up, welcomed the brief hot spell.

New York, with a high temperature of 82 degrees, reported one heat prostration and six drownings. Detroit watched the thermometer reading fall from the 90s to the 60s, while Chicago was relieved with a 21 degree drop.

New York Fatalities

Albany, N. Y., July 8.—(AP)—Eight were known dead and damage of nearly two million dollars was estimated today in the wake of violent rain and electrical storms in central and eastern New York state during the weekend.

Six persons were drowned near Ithaca, in southern New York, one man was struck by lightning at Pithers and another died of exertion after an attempt to save some of his possessions in a summer cottage near Ithaca.

Highway and railway traffic was hampered seriously, and several towns lost some of their utility services. Communications were also widely affected.

Arthur Brokaw and Miss Alice Ferris, both of Interlachen, Seneca county, drowned when their car was washed from the Elmira-Ithaca highway, near Butternut Falls.

John Solomon and his three sons, of Myers, Tompkins county, were swept away when a bridge over swollen Salmon creek collapsed.

140 ENROLL IN SAFETY COURSE
CONDUCTED HERE

About one hundred forty highway men from the Dixon district are enrolled in the first aid course conducted by the state highway department in connection with the National Safety contest. The course is being held at the I. N. U. Assembly room here, Mondays and Fridays, for seven weeks.

Five classes are enrolled with approximately thirty men in each class. Classes meet in Rockford on Tuesdays and in Geneseo on Tuesdays. A corps of United Mine Workers are in charge of the course, considered more complete than the usual Red Cross first aid course.

Virgil Carrier and Edward Mahan, state police officers, are instructors for the local classes. They recently completed studies in this work prior to opening of the classes here. In the seven weeks work, 15 hours will be covered.

Posters on Safety

Posters on safety are being placed around the city as reminders of auto fatalities which are occurring with increasing frequency. In 1934 the casualty list of the nation was as follows: 6440 killed trying to beat top lights, 4000 dead while attempting to pass other cars on curves, 1500 killed when run down by cars as they attempted to rush across the street from behind parked cars, 3450 killed while driving on the wrong side of the road, 1800 children killed, struck by automobiles, 1150 dead as a result of accidents caused by glaring headlights, 3410 dead when hit by automobiles as they were jaywalking across streets, and 6850 killed as a result of speeding.

BRIDGE PLANS O. K.

Washington, July 8.—(AP)—The War Department today approved plans submitted by the Illinois department of public works and public buildings for a bridge to be constructed across the Illinois and Mississippi canal, one mile north of Annawan, Ill. The proposed bridge will be of modern concrete construction and replace one built when the canal was under construction.

CONSTITUTION PUTTY?

Chicago.—Chief Justice Clyde E. Stone of the Illinois supreme court told a negro business men's organization that stabilized government "ceases to exist when a constitution becomes as putty in the hands of a temporary majority."

Reunion Is Ended

San Diego, Calif., July 8.—(AP)—A reunion of four women who had not been together since 1922 today ended in the violent death of all when their automobile plunged down a 35-foot embankment at Point Loma and landed in the surf.

Later, in attempting to salvage the wrecked automobile, William F. England, a garage man, was fatally injured when a crane cable broke and struck him.

The women victims of the tragedy were Mrs. Victoria Albeta Murphy, 45, of San Diego; Miss Mary E. Roome, 60, of King Cove Beach, Mass.; Mrs. Helen Billings, Pond View Ave., Jamaica Plain, Mass., and Miss Constance Billings, her daughter.

DOZEN PEOPLE KILLED SUNDAY*Drownings, Auto Crashes
Took Lives of Twelve Illinois Citizens

Chicago, July 8.—(AP)—Drownings and automobile accidents claimed the lives of at least 12 Illinois residents over the weekend, six dying in the water and six in car crashes.

At Peoria, Cletis McClanahan, 29, and Leo Crowley, 33, lost their lives when their canoe was swamped by high waves in the Illinois river. McClanahan was a resident of Peoria, while Crowley divided his time between Peoria and Paris, Ill.

Two persons drowned near Springfield, William S. Sullivan, 34, sank while swimming in a lake near Lincoln, and Dale McElhanon, 13, drowned while wading in a pond near Girard.

The body of a girl, clad in a bathing suit, was taken from Lake Michigan at a Chicago beach. No identification was made.

Two Chicago women burned to death near Whitewater, Wis., when their car overturned on a curve and caught fire. The victims were Betty Ritter, 24, and Mary Ciethaml, 23. Palmer Davis, member of the Wisconsin state legislature, who was driving the car, was seriously injured.

Floyd Owens, Niles Center roofing contractor, was killed when struck by a car driven by Robert Bart, Port Wayne, Ind. Bart was held under $5,000 for the inquest. Other deaths in the Chicago area included Jacob Greiwald, 83; Arnold Stadler, 40, and Eugene Morris, 43.

Thomas Denhart, 13, drowned in Salt Fork river near Champaign when he slipped and fell in a hole while wading. Resuscitation squads failed to revive him.

WHEAT PAYMENT
RATES BOOSTED*AAA Adjustment Rates
Fixed at 33 Cents
a Bushel Today

Washington, July 8.—(AP)—A proclamation by Secretary Wallace today established the minimum 1935 wheat adjustment payments at least 33 cents a bushel compared to the 1934 minimum of 29 cents.

Payments for both years, the AAA said, are subject to slight deductions for county administration costs.

Chester C. Davis, AAA administrator, said the increase of four cents a bushel for the 1935 allotments represents additional income to cooperating wheat producers of approximately $14,000,000.

Under the new schedules, Davis asserted, producers will receive adjusted payments of at least $115,000,000 on the 1935 crop instead of $100,000,000 on the 29 cent basis.

No change was made in the processing tax rate of 30 cents a bushel. The AAA said the additional adjustment payments were made possible by reserves accumulated from the tax on wheat produced by farmers not under allotment contracts. The increased payment, it was said, will not result in any deficit in the wheat fund.

President of Wheaton College is on Trial

Chicago, July 8.—(AP)—Threatening to split the northern division of the Presbyterian church of the United States if treated unfairly, Dr. J. Oliver Buswell, president of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., today was scheduled to go to trial before an ecclesiastical court on a charge of rebellion.

Dr. Buswell, one of a group of church members styling themselves the "real fundamentalists of Presbyterians," was specifically accused of ignoring an order by the denomination's 1934 foreign missions.

MANY CHINESE DROWN IN YUEN
RIVER'S FLOOD*Disaster Rivals Floods of 1931: Americans Reported Safe*BULLETIN

Nanking, China, July 8.—(AP)—Three separate groups of American missionaries were reported in grave danger tonight as the Yangtze river swept over the dikes protecting Shasi, an important port in southern Hupeh province.

The mission groups are representatives of the American Episcopal Church Mission with headquarters in New York; the Covenant Mission Society, with headquarters in Chicago; and the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, with headquarters at St. Louis.

Aside from the missionaries, the foreign population in Shasi is small.

The Yangtze river swept through central China on a mad rampage of death and destruction as governmental reports stated that millions of persons are affected and property damage will reach a staggering figure.

Changteh, Hunan Province, China, July 8.—(AP)—The dikes of the Yuen river yielded to flood pressure today, losing a torrent that drowned many Chinese in this inland city's worst disaster in years.

The number of dead could not be determined immediately, but all members of the foreign colony—among them 12 American missionaries—were reported safe.

Ten feet of water gushed about the residences of the Americans representing the Northern Presbyterian Mission. Thousands of homes were inundated.

Heavy rains continued to fall and officials feared destruction would result unless the skies cleared soon.

Rival 1931 Floods.

The floods already rivaled in relative volume those of 1931 when the Yangtze river burst its bounds and swelled through central China, causing thousands of deaths.

A Hankow dispatch said the water front at Kiukiang was under four feet of water.

With the Presbyterian mission, the other missions at this city, 252 miles from Hankow, are the Christian and Missionary Alliance headquarters at 260 West 44th street, New York City; the China Inland Mission, American headquarters at Philadelphia, and the Canadian Holiness Movement, headquarters at Ottawa.

Springfield, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—Governor Horner's signature today permanently extended the 1933 law authorizing the state to fix minimum wages for women and minors employed in industry.

The normal school scholarship bill also was among a long list of measures, passed by the 59th General Assembly, that the Governor signed.

Pirates Board Gambling Barge Off Long Beach, Calif.; Get $32,000

Long Beach, Calif., July 8.—(AP)—Five pirates today boarded the luxurious gambling barge, Monte Carlo, chained its crew, and escaped with what Ed Turner, owner of the boat, estimated was $32,000 in cash and jewelry.

The attack on the Monte Carlo, which became piracy on the high seas because the big steel barge is anchored about eight miles off shore, occurred at 4 A. M. while most of the crew was asleep. Turner said the loot consisted of

Stole Suicide Gun

Yonkers, N. Y., July 8.—(AP)—A 22-year-old woman resident of Yonkers, Margaret Jordan, took her life early today with a stolen pistol, police said, after a rendezvous with a member of the Mt. Vernon police department.

Police questioned Patrolman Daniel Scannell who related that he had told the girl he could not continue to see her. As they sat in his automobile, he said, she took his pistol from the pocket in the door without his knowledge. Then they separated. He was not held.

DOERING PAPER MATERIAL FOR NEXT CAMPAIGN*Likely Also to be Theme of Many Speeches in State Legislature

Springfield, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—Material for future campaign speeches and legislative debates was found today in the report to Governor Horner of his commission to study long range unemployment policies.

Rep. Richard J. Lyons, Libertyville, Republican, declared the report of the commission headed by Otto C. Doering of Chicago vindicated his efforts during the 1935 legislative session to replace the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission.

"Returning some power to the counties and cash relief are recommended by the commission," Lyons said. "This has been my contention and I introduced bills to this effect only to have them killed by the house upon orders of the governor. I believe this to be the only way of getting rid of thousands of professional workers who are leeches on the body politic and the taxpayers."

The major recommendation of the Doering report was that the state department of public welfare be reorganized, with a non-political board in control, and be given charge of all relief and welfare work with eventual replacement of the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission.

Horner Non-Committal
Governor Horner, in making public the commission's findings after the legislature adjourned, did not comment on the recommendations except to say that some "may not agree with all of it."

State House observers believe that the relief issue probably will not be placed before the special legislative session scheduled for sometime before winter sets in. The life of the IERC was extended last month until the 1937 legislative meets and the sales tax was increased to three per cent to furnish relief revenues.

Lyons and other Republicans are expected to make an issue of relief administration during the 1936 campaign. They attacked the IERC at every opportunity during recent months, charging it with waste and inefficiency and demanding that relief responsibilities be localized.

The Doering recommendations, which called for a state and local expenditure of $50,000,000 yearly after the federal government assumes responsibility for the employable idle, would put relief and welfare work in the hands of state and county boards under a set-up designed to eliminate political considerations. The relief commission, by a gradual process, would turn over its duties to the department of public welfare.

Mrs. Harriet Smith Called Saturday Eve

Mrs. Harriet Smith, aged 79, mother of Mrs. Kenyon B. Segner, passed away quietly at her daughter's home, 221 Peoria avenue Saturday evening at 10 o'clock. The body was taken to Chicago this morning where funeral services and burial took place at Rosehill cemetery.

JOHN D. IN GOOD HEALTH AT 96

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, SR.

Lakewood, N. J., July 8.—(AP)—John D. Rockefeller, Sr., was four score and sixteen today and enjoying the best health in years.

Routine in "Golf House" with its 25 servants remained unchanged, with any birthday observance barred. The nonagenarian's son, John D. Rockefeller Jr., spent the day with him.

"He hasn't felt better in many years," the son said.

His dentist, Dr. Max Goldstein, reported that the annual examination showed his 19 natural teeth still sound with no need for fillings or extractions.

The birthday marked the eightieth year since the start of the business career that carried him from the possession of nothing to the possession of estimated billions. The actual size of his fortune has never been revealed.

At 16 he started work as an assistant bookkeeper in a produce commission warehouse in Cleveland at $30 a month.

At 96 he is long retired from business activity and has behind him the amazing of what many believe to be the greatest riches ever controlled by an individual, and the philanthropic disposal of a half billion dollars.

Excessive heat kept the aged capitalist from church yesterday, but his son attended union services at the First Presbyterian church.

DECISION SLOT MACHINE WRIT
EXPECTED SOON*Judge Sheean May Give Rulings Here
July 19th.

Upon petition of Charles R. Leake, Dixon, the will of Russell Leake was admitted to record in county court after being probated this morning. Judge William L. Leach presided, and Charles R. Leake was appointed executor.

Three witnesses testified to validity of the instrument signed by Russell Leake before his death, claiming the deceased to be of sound mind and body. They were Robert L. Warner and Helen A. Thompson, who witnessed the signature of Mr. Leake, and Charles Leake, son of the deceased.

Two marriage licenses were granted at the office of County Clerk Sterling Shrock, Saturday. A license was awarded Lyle B. Klapprodt and Miss Iola E. Ringler, both of Dixon, and to Elton P. Myers and Adeline L. Owen, also of Dixon.

It was announced this morning by State's Attorney Edward Jones that Judge Sheean of Galena will be in Dixon July 19 when he will probably hand down a decision on the slot machine injunction case.

Two Minor Traffic Accidents Reported

Two automobile accidents occurred in Dixon over the week-end resulting in the slight injury of one person.

An accident resulted this morning at the intersection of North Galena avenue and Fellows street, when a car driven by Mrs. W. H. Baughmer of Kendallville, Indiana, collided with one driven by James Farster of Waukegan. Mrs. Baughmer was driving north on Galena and turned west just as Farster, going south on Galena, reached the intersection. The cars collided but only slight damage to either machine resulted.

Lloyd Buckingham, this city, was taken to the Katherine Shaw Bethesda hospital Saturday evening after he was struck by an automobile driven by George Merriman at the corner of Peoria avenue and First street. Merriman was driving south on Peoria when the accident occurred. Buckingham was treated for injuries on the head and face.

Tokens Are Wrong

Chicago, July 8.—(AP)—His Washington attorney has told Knowlton L. Ames, state director of finance, that the new Illinois sales tax tokens may have to be called in.

The treasury department objects to the one and one-half mill discs, Ames told United State's Attorney Michael L. Igoe, on the ground that they too closely resemble money.

"I suppose the attorney general will agree, although I have not yet received an official ruling," said Igoe.

The treasury objects merely to the "form of the tokens" it was said at the department of finance, and not to their issuance as a method of collecting the new 3 per cent sales tax.

To call in the discs and punch holes in them would remove the objection, it was explained.

THREE SLAYERS
PRAY TO BOARD*Parole Board Must Act
Today to Save Lives of Hold-up Killers

Chester, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—Calmly, three youths today awaited last efforts of their attorneys to save them from the electric chair after midnight at the penitentiary here.

A plea for commutation of sentence for the trio, Van Buren Dedmon, 25, John Krul, 21, and Edward Balling, 19, will be made this afternoon to the state board of pardons and paroles.

Opposed to the appeal for clemency was City Judge William Borders of East St. Louis, in whose court the youths were convicted of slaying William C. Moss, street car motorman, in an attempted hold-up.

As cool as they were ten days ago when their attorneys obtained a reprieve from Gov. Horner, they spent their time chatting gayly, smoking, reading and writing.

HEAR OTHER APPEALS

Springfield, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—Attorneys for three St. Louis youths condemned to die tonight in the electric chair will ask for commutation of sentence before the state pardon board this afternoon.

The youths, Edward Balling, 19, John Krul, 21, and Van Buren Dedmon, 25, were sentenced to die for the murder of William C. Moss, East St. Louis street car motorman, during a hold-up.

The three men were originally condemned to die June 14th but obtained a 15-day stay from City Judge William Borders of East St. Louis, who presided at their trial.

Stay Expires Today
Governor Horner granted another stay of ten days, which expires today.

Approximately forty men and women confined in Illinois penal institutions tomorrow will ask the pardon board for freedom or commutation of sentence.

Among the requests to be heard will be those made by Eleanor Jarman, "Blonde Tigress," serving a 199-year term for a Chicago murder; Jesse Binga, Chicago banker serving time in Joliet prison for embezzlement, and Carlo Coniglio of Springfield, convicted of murder in Morgan county.

"Back to Nature" Gang of Counterfeiters Held

Woodstock, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—Sheriff Henry Nulle of McHenry county today claimed arrest of a "back to nature" gang of alleged counterfeiters.

Raiding a hobo "jungle" near here, he said he arrested four men he charged were making counterfeit 25 cent pieces from stolen silverware. For a mold, he said, they were using clay, and for a ladle a contraption constructed from the top of a food bottle.

PENDING

Los Angeles, July 8.—(AP)—Headed for the divorce courts, Adrianna Ames, screen actress, and Bruce Cabot, actor, today blamed the clash of personalities and temperaments for the breakup of their home. Martin Garg, attorney for the actress, said he would file the divorce complaint some time today.

A property settlement and an agreement as to alimony has been reached out of court, Miss Ames said.

Cabot and the actress were married two years ago, soon after Mrs. Ames' divorce from Stephen Ames, New York broker.

PROCEEDINGS HALTED

Frankfort, Ky., July 8.—(AP)—Contempt proceedings against 15 state police and two National Guardsmen brought in Harlan county were halted today by a prohibitory writ obtained from the Kentucky court of appeals by Adjutant General Henry H. Denhardt.

BRITAIN ALONE IN EFFORTS TO END WAR THREAT*Attempts Seem Hopeless
as Italy Speeds Up Its Troop Moves

London, July 8.—(AP)—Premier Benito Mussolini's dictum of Italy's "irretrievable" decision in her dispute with Ethiopia confronted Great Britain today as she pondered new policies in an attempt to avert war.

A definite decision is expected to be announced to the House of Commons Thursday by Sir Samuel Hoare, foreign secretary.

Joseph A. C. Avenol, secretary general of the League of Nations, arrives tonight and will consult Sir Samuel and Captain Anthony Eden tomorrow concerning the Italo-Ethiopian crisis.

With Great Britain apparently forced to play a lone hand as peace-maker as a result of the "hands off" attitudes of the United States and France, it was believed that little would result from their conversations.

ITALY SPEEDS WORK

Rome, July 8.—(AP)—Italy stepped up concentration of troops for action in East Africa today, and some observers predicted warfare between Italy and Ethiopia before the rainy season ends in September.

The blackshirt divisions, it was disclosed, have been increased in strength—from 12,000 to 15,000 men. Four divisions have been completed and another is to be ready soon.

More than 3,000 soldiers and officers are enroute to Africa on three ships that sailed during the week-end. Other transports are ready at their docks, awaiting only the arrival of volunteer battalions.

Although most observers held that hostilities could not begin before the heavy rains let up in September, some expressed a belief that the controversy was developing so rapidly that it would come to a head sooner.

Nation Rallies

The nation rallied strongly to Premier Benito Mussolini's charge to 12,000 blackshirts, ready to depart at Salerno for Africa: "We have decided upon a struggle in which we as a government and people will not turn back. The decision is irrevocable."

Italian newspapers displayed prominently dispatches asserting France had refused to back Great Britain in an effort to avert war through the League of Nations. Dispatches from London criticized Captain Anthony Eden for a "tentative offer" of a seaport to Ethiopia to settle the dispute.

The conciliation commission, meeting at Scheveningen, the Netherlands, was considered to be discussing only border incidents—minor elements in the controversy.

Witnesses Gathered Against Mrs. Waley to Testify Tuesday

Tacoma, Wash., July 8.—(AP)—Witnesses with whom the government expects to prove its case against plump, giggling Mrs. Margaret Thulin Waley, 19, charged with kidnapping George Weyerhaeuser were assembled here today for her trial.

United States District Attorney J. Charles Dennis has 75 witnesses available when the taking of testimony begins tomorrow. The jury was chosen Friday.

Witnesses include department of justice agents, police officers from Butte, Mont., and Salt Lake City and persons who will testify to the movements of the nine-year-old Tacoma boy's kidnappers before and after he was "snatched"—May 24—from the streets of Tacoma and held for $200,000 ransom.

Dean of Architects is Dead in Hartford, Conn.

Hartford, Conn., July 8.—(AP)—George Keller, 92, dean of the American Institute of Architects and designer of the Gettysburg Memorial at the dedication of which Lincoln made his famous address, died at his home here yesterday after a week's illness.

Although he retired from active practice in 1914, Keller undertook commissions occasionally until a few years ago. He was the designer of the Garfield National Memorial in Cleveland, Monumental Hall and the Gateway at the Soldiers' Home in Danville, Ill., and the Monumental Gateway at the military home in Dayton, O., are other works of his design.

About the S. S. Kungsholm. July 8.—(AP)—Bowman Gray, chairman of the board of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, died aboard ship yesterday after a heart attack.

He was stricken Friday while on a North Cape cruise.

Albion, Ill., July 8—(AP)—Robert Couch of West Salem and Roy Burroughs, Fairfield, both of high school age, faced charges today that they were responsible for an automobile accident in which Ervin E. Medler of Albion was killed and his wife injured June 17.

The Edwards county grand jury, called into special session Saturday, indicted the youths following testimony that they were drivers of the two automobiles which struck Medler's car.

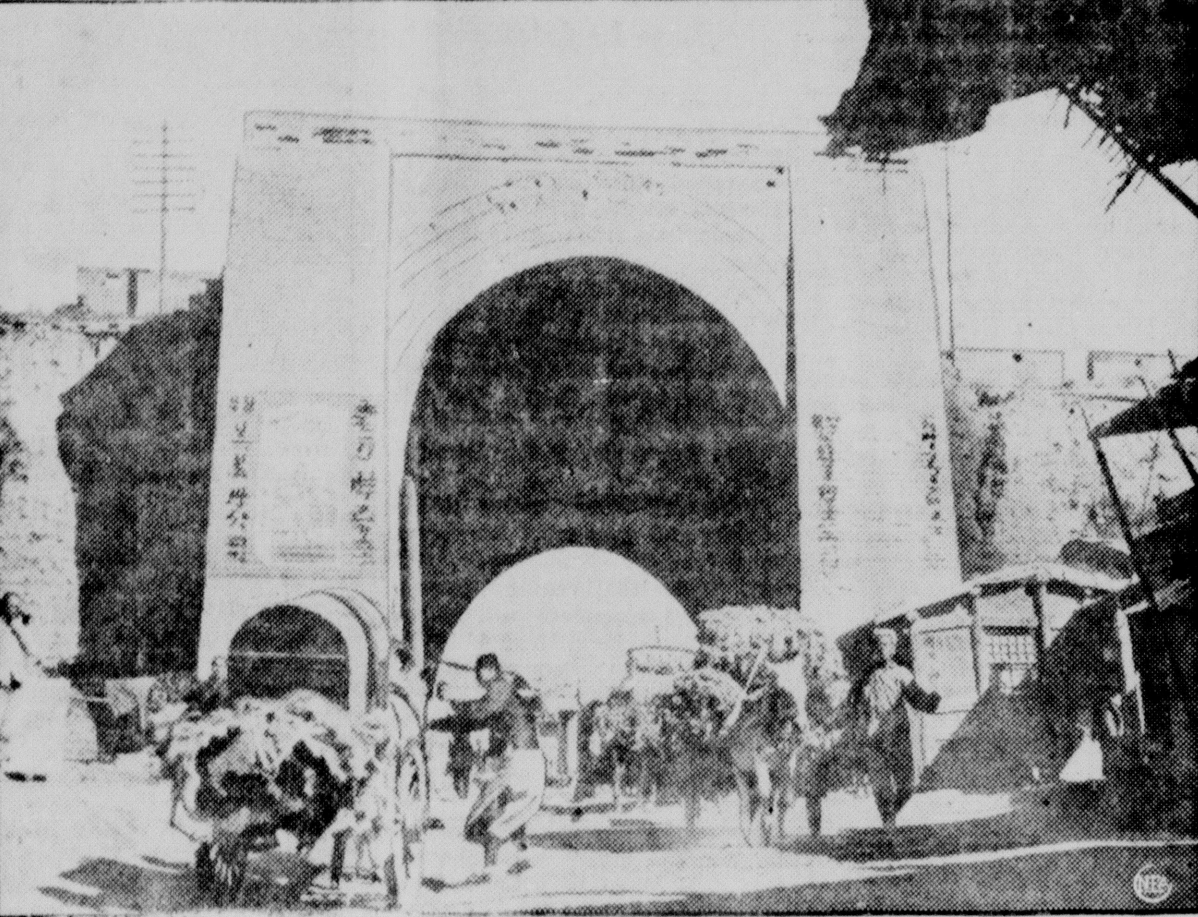

Each was charged with involuntary manslaughter, driving a car while intoxicated and racing on the highway. They were released under bonds of $2,000.

Inflation Creates Problem for Parachutists, too

The idea of stepping into thin air terrifies the novice, but it's the actual landing that worries the experienced parachute jumper. If there's the least breeze, the jumper is likely to find himself at the mercy of his chute, his life imperiled by being dragged over rough ground, tossed into barbed wire or brambles. This unusual picture of British Air Force jumpers trying to haul in their billowing chutes after landing at Henlow, England, vividly illustrates the terrific struggle that marks the end of the jump.

Officials said the second installment may be increased above 13 cents if the difference between the average farm price and the wheat parity price for the current marketing year is more than 33 cents a bushel.

IT CAN'T BE TOLD

By Joseph Fort Newton

"HAT is your religion?"

a famous man was asked. "Why, it is the religion of all sensible men," he replied. "And what may that be?" his friend asked eagerly. "It is what no sensible man ever tells!" Exactly, he could not tell it if he tried to do so. He might repeat a creed, or outline a theology, but those would not tell it. Nor is it necessary to tell it, because it is in his life as feetcolor is in a rose.

religion, as in love, what is not worth telling cannot be told.

speech is but a ripple on the bottom of the unspoken. Neither saint nor sinner can tell his secret.

Talking about religion, in fact, is nearly always a waste of words; arguing about it is futile. No religion is a thing so inward, so in-imate, so much in the heat of the blood, that no words are adequate—only music can ever give it tongue.

Our deepest faith, like our darkest doubt, is beyond all discussion. If a man has lost faith in life or in God, it is not because he has reasoned himself out of it. Some acid secreted in the soul dissolved the pearl of great price. And he should keep it to himself. Some questions must not be so much as asked, much less argued. There is a sort of mood which, if it passes over the soul, sours it, like a foul odor passing over fresh milk turning food into poison.

In a Galsworthy story a man and his boy are burying a pet dog, always a heartbreaking experience.

The boy remarks that the dog is the only four-footer who has a sense of God, and then asks, "Do you believe in God, Dad? I've never known." Nor would he have known if his dad had always talked about

God, unless he had felt something of God in his life. It is not what we say but what we are that tells of our religion is to talk about religion is one thing; to talk religion is another. There are souls so aglow with a sense of God that their slightest word makes Him real to us. If in our lives the Word has become flesh, and men see its grace and truth, then our words strike God-fire, as thoughts beyond their thoughts are given to prophets and poets.

The ushers were Carl Plowman and Pius Burgard and the ring bearer was Dickie Martinson. He also wore a white suit.

brandt played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, and Mrs. Ray Herbert sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." Mendelssohn's March was played as the recessional.

White Jubilee Ball

Gown Duchess Satin

London—(AP)—A jubilee ball gown much admired was a Hartnell model in white duchess satin with touches of two shades of blue and silver introduced in the floral decoration.

The old-time mode had a wide flounced skirt spreading out at the back and fitting at the hips. Small sleeves fell "of-the-shoulders," and the plain bodice was nearly covered by a large corsage of artificial flowers. These were of pale blue with turquoise leaves and threads of silver.

The turquoise shade matched the jewels mingled with diamonds in the tiara and other ornaments.

Miss Hart Awarded High Honors for Composition in Contest

First place in the finale of a national contest for American women composers was won last week by Miss Lucile M. Hart of Ashton, who teaches music in Dixon. The contest was sponsored by Delta Omicron, national professional music fraternity and the awards were made at the national convention held at Interlochen, Michigan. Dr. Maddy was one of the judges. Since announcement of the contest was first made two years ago, women composers throughout America have been working diligently to prepare works to submit.

The number which won the silver trophy for Miss Hart is an original composition entitled "On the Water," scored for a full eighty-piece symphony orchestra, including harp. She plans to use it as the concluding movement of an orchestral suite she is composing, which describes musically the various aspects of the Fourth of July.

This is not the first honor which has been accorded Miss Hart as a composer. Concert and church musicians in Chicago, Texas, Wisconsin, Iowa and California have reported that her songs have been warmly received by discriminating audiences in those states. At Bush Conservatory, Chicago, she was awarded the Bachelor of Music and the Master of Music degrees in violin and composition. She has taught instrumental and theoretical music in both Galesburg and Chicago.

For the past three years Miss Hart has lived in Ashton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hart, while she has given lessons on the piano, violin and woodwind instruments to pupils in Rochelle, Ashton and Dixon.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

COCOA QUICKLY MADE WITH ICE-BOX SUPPLY

Cocoa can be all ready to make, or a cool chocolate drink if you prefer, by mixing your proportions of cocoa with a little water and sugar and bringing to a boil and putting aside in the ice box.

Then when some members of the family wish cocoa before retiring your mixture is ready and all you need do is to stir in with the milk and warm. Or if the children want a chocolate drink—milk is what they should have—mix some of the cocoa preparation with the milk and stir. You can keep a supply on hand. It will keep in the ice box for very nearly a week at a time.

ORIGINALITY NEEDED TO ENLIVEN WALLS

TIME HAS DULLED Never be daunted because your walls are dull and characterless; a very effective and inexpensive treatment is to paper.

In your living rooms you'll be wise to choose neutral colors—keeping designs small and colors light if the rooms are small, but in your bedrooms, nurseries, baths and bars—exercise your imagination.

You can cut out and paste on amusing pictures, finishing in a sophisticated manner with a prepared glaze—and glaze is effective on almost any wallpaper; it gives protection and a rich appearance—but it will change the colors, so do a sample first.

You may paint or stencil swags or borders around your ceilings or above your chair-rails, or secure unusual effects by using pictorial or oriental wallpapers in panels borders or painted mouldings.

To Freshen Cocoanuts If you have ever tasted fresh cocoanut and wish you could have home more but are far removed from where it grows you can have practically the same thing by steaming a dry cocoanut for about three-quarters of an hour.

COOKING HINTS

Reserve leftover sweetened spiced vinegar from bottled pickles and use it in place of vinegar and sugar in salad dressings.

Onion juice really blends and flavors better than chopped onions. To obtain the juice press a spoon against cut side of onion or press onion against a grater and the juice will drip through.

Cooked potatoes do not keep very well during warm weather. So carefully store them on shallow dish in coldest part of ice box.

Wilted vegetables will become crisp if covered with cold water and chilled for several hours.

TO ENTERTAIN WITH DANCE THIS EVENING—

Miss Leone Kreim is entertaining with a dancing party this evening at the Dixon Country club. There will be 20 couples. A four piece orchestra will furnish the music.

BRIDGE DINNER AT CLUB IS POSTPONED—

Because of a private dance being held at the Dixon Country Club this evening the bridge dinner scheduled for this evening, has been definitely postponed.

Play on Liquor Traffic Given with Great Success in Freeport

The play "What Shall It Profit," written by Ire H. Frantz, which was given at the local Brethren church a few months ago has been in great demand since that time and has been given in a number of places. Last night it was given at the Freeport Brethren church. The play presents a true and striking picture of conditions under the liquor traffic in such an impressive way that the audience is held spell-bound from start to finish. It is given under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Thompson using local talent whose personality make them well suited for the part they take in the play. The following selections were given between scenes: Reading by Mrs. Edward Holbrook; piano solo, Edith Weikle; and a duet by Paul and Truman Thompson. The cast of characters were: Bob Kurtz, reporter and managing editor on the Seneca Daily Tribune—Paul Thompson; Robert Kurtz, his father, owner and editor of the Tribune—Pius Burgard; Rev. Arthur Maughan, a Seneca pastor—Truman Thompson; Sue Kurtz, Bob's wife—Ethel McWehly; Helen Masters, life-long friend of Sue Kurtz, and the wife of Fred Masters—Marie Thompson; Margaret Kurtz, Bob's mother—Hazel Nelson; Bobby, infant son of Bob and Sue—Eugene Holbrook; Henry Getty, representing the National Association of Liquor Manufacturers—Orville LeGore. About twenty in all from the local Brethren church attended the delegation at Freeport.

WIRE GUESTS AT W. H. BREWSTER HOME SUNDAY—

SOFT CREAM SUDEE LATEST IN GLOVES—

PARIS—(AP)—The latest chic on hand is a glove of soft cream suede. A number of smart continentalers are wearing them with their afternoon costumes.

The Countess de Robilant chose them to accent a blue and white printed satin afternoon frock which she wore with a wide brimmed hat of navy blue straw at a recent tea.

I DO NOT ENVY

By Helen Welshimer

I do not envy anyone a Heaven That love has built in beauty... this I pray: That it has sprung from high and noble leaven, So it it last a century or a day, No shadows will mar a sky that should be tender, May they keep faith with promises they render— This way alone the spires of Eden stand.

NO wasted city lies within my dreaming, When I look up the hill paths to the sun, I see my minarets still bravely gleaming, Though tenancy, once dear, is long since done. They who retain the image of high places Are never pilgrims in the frightened lands, No clutter of debris leaves futile traces— They build again with stronger, gentler hands!

CHURCHES
NEWS of the

AMBOY LUTHERAN CHURCH

A. G. Suechting, Pastor.

Sunday afternoon was a special day of rejoicing for the Amboy Lutheran church for ten young people were received into communicant membership through the solemn rites of confirmation. The church was beautifully decorated in roses and a variety of many colored garden flowers. The class of ten young people marched into church to the militant strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers." Each one wore a white carnation. The choir rendered an appropriate anthem. The sermon reminded the congregation that confirmation was a day of joy not only for the class but for the congregation and the church at large. The confirmation service reached its highest point when the class knelt at the altar and by the laying on of hands received the church's blessing. The members then partook for the first time of Holy Communion. The following were added to the church through the solemn rite of confirmation: Hanna Metzger, Olga Metzger, Freda Hinrichs, Lillian Machen, Ethel Hinrichs, Onno Jacobs, Edwin Knapp, Glen Hinrichs, Henry Jacobs, and Chris Franks. The following also were baptized: Eugene Hinrichs, Bernita Hinrichs, Ethel Hinrichs, Edwin Knapp and Doris Jean Frickett.

BRETHREN CHURCH.

Sunday services were well attended both morning and evening with a fine spirit of worship and a delightful fellowship. At the close of the morning worship three applicants were received into the church by baptism. A beautiful wedding was conducted from the church in the afternoon when Eldon R. Meyers and Adeline L. Owen were united in marriage in the presence of many friends who were wishing them success and happiness. Tuesday evening the Missionary Circle meets at the home of Mrs. David Wade. There will be a picnic supper and a fine program. A large delegation is expected to attend.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 we take up the study of missions in Africa with Ruth Bowers as leader. This will be of unusual interest and there should be a good attendance.

The Crusaders Sunday School class, which is taught by Edward Myers, will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Castle. They have a picnic supper and a splendid program and a good time is promised.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"God" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 7.

The Golden Text was, "There is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God" (1 Samuel 2:2).

Among the citations which comprised our Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Jesus said, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment: and the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these" (Mark 12:29-31).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Dost thou love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind? This command includes much, even the surrender of all merely material sensation, affection, and worship. This is the El Dorado of Christianity" (p. 9).

STORK TOO SPEEDY.

Chicago, July 8—(AP)—The stork outsped two policemen taking Mrs. Celia Waser, 25, to a hospital. A 12 pound boy was born en route, with Officer Herman Strike in attendance while Officer Frank McInerney was driving the automobile last night.

It is vitally important that every owner of a new car know the proper oil pressure for various speeds of his engine. This can be learned only by reading the instruction book that comes with the car.

THE TINYMITES

Story by HAL COCHRAN

Pictures by GEORGE SCARBO

(READ THE STORY THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The sea man's wand was waved around. "Now, tots, it will be safe and sound for you to dive down deep," he shouted to the Tinymites. "The water will not hurt you, so I'll stand here till I see you go. And then I'll come and take you to where you can see some sights."

"Here goes," yelled Scouty Tiny-mite. And then he dove right out of sight. The others shortly followed him. It was a lot of fun. "Ha, ha," laughed Coppy. "I'm in trim to take a dandy little swim, I'm pretty good at back stroke. Watch! I'll show you how it's done."

"They played around for quite a while and then the sea man, with a smile, swam up and said, 'How goes it? Do you all feel safe down here?'"

"Of course we do," said Goldy. "Gee, it really is a mystery how we can stay below the water, with no thought of fear."

"Oh, my strange wand fixed things that way. I knew that you would love to play with funny fish," the man replied, "and soon that's what you'll do."

"Down at the bottom of the sea, all of the fish are ruled by me. I now will call a boat that will hold every one of you."

"It's rather far to swim, you see, and we can make it easily by letting my wee water nymph take you all for a ride."

And then he clapped his hands and said, "He's coming, now, tots! Look ahead. 'Real soon a little shell boat pulled up to the Tinies' side."

"Hop in," the nymph cried. "I will row, and all around the sea we'll go. No matter what comes near us, don't let it give you a scare."

"The whole gang quickly hopped aboard, and shortly Dotty loudly roared, 'My what a funny place this is. Strange fish are everywhere.'"

POET'S CORNER

TO OLD COMPANY G

Louis A. Clark of 122 E. Second St., Los Angeles, Calif., where he now conducts a cigar store, who was employed in the Dixon Laundry at the outbreak of the Spanish American war and who enlisted in Co. G of this city for that conflict, has written Fred E. Brown, secretary of the Sixth Illinois Volunteer Infantry Assn., regarding the reunion to be held in Morrison in August, and has enclosed a poem of his authorship, "The Hoary Old Veteran," which he has dedicated to old Company G. The poem is:

The hoary old veteran; some call him a grifter
'Cause he deserves and needs the pension he's after;
And a bunch of 'em say he's a helva lot of nerve Expecting anything from the government he fought to preserve,
And a lot of 'em think he's a thing of the past
'Cause we need him not now to fight or to fast;
He's in the way—any you'll hear these ones mention
He's a skinning Uncle Sam if receiving a pension.

They say he's no good and wrong in the head,
And bein' of no use, is better off dead.
But I'm thinkin' for sure that his history relates
He was used in '76 and some few other dates.

So let's stop and think before a-turnin' our backs,
And perhaps if we're square we'll base judgment on facts,
And be fair to the veteran, for the past indicates
If it wasn't for him there'd be no United States.

WHEN THE SUN DON'T SHINE

Things don't seem altogether right;
There seems to fall an awful blight,
Which makes all thoughts of joy take flight
When the sun don't shine,
All may be gay for you and I

Until clouds creep across the sky;
Then we will fret, and fume, and cry.
When the sun don't shine.

We try to work, but strive in vain,
For everything is on the wane,
And so we're grumpy and complain
When the sun don't shine.
No matter how we try to be,
Our courage lets our faith fall free
To keep the gloom where we can see.
When the sun don't shine.

All life appears to share our woe—
Just mopes around and moves more slow.

The fields and gardens cease to grow
When the sun don't shine.
All aims of life in daily toil,
Seem sinking sure in vast turmoil,
And what we start we often spoil
When the sun don't shine.

But when the skies are blazing fair
All bright and blue, beyond compare,
We never think of joys we share,
When the sun does shine.
The world works better with the sun;
A strife is always quicker won;
The deeds of life are nobler done,
When the sun does shine.

Franklin Grove, Ill.

THE LONG DAYS OF THE YEAR

The long days of the year,
How sweet they are to the ear?
The happy birds begin them before
I wake from sleep,
And tenderly they are ended by the voices of the sheep,
Coming home in the twilight, Oh,
happy child that I am,
Roused by a bird in the morning and lulled at night by a lamb.

The long days of the year,
How fair to the eye and dear?
The grass is thick in the meadows,
the branches heavy with leaves,
And gaily the roses are running up
the cottage eaves,
Sleeping the porch in perfume, Oh,
loving child should I be,
When thick and rosy and fragrant my joys are coming to me,

DAILY HEALTH

TRICHINOSIS: I

The disease trichinosis is produced by a worm, the female of which in the adult form measures about one-sixth of an inch, and the male about one-sixteenth. The worm gains entrance into the human body when infected pig meat is eaten.

Once it was thought that the disease was comparatively rare in the United States. More recent studies have revealed that it is more widespread than believed.

Thus, the worm was found in 17.5 per cent of 344 autopsy cases studied in Rochester, N. Y. In another study conducted in Boston 27.6 per cent of the bodies examined contained encysted worms.

The symptoms of trichinosis are in the main so variable that they are easily confounded with other disease conditions.

In a recently reported analysis of 35 cases, only 11 of them were at once diagnosed as trichinosis, despite the fact that in each instance the history of the patient was carefully surveyed and a complete physical examination was made.

The remaining 24 cases later definitely established to be trichinosis were first diagnosed as acute kidney disease, acute respiratory infection, typhoid fever, gastroenteritis, erysipelas, lead poisoning, etc.

Fortunately, we have developed certain laboratory tests by means of which we can definitely establish the diagnosis of trichinosis. One of these consists in a study of the blood cells for the presence of one type of cell called the eosinophil.

Another test consists in injecting under the skin a very minute quantity of an extract made from the worm. In the person infected, a blanched wheal makes its appearance at the site of injection within five minutes.

This reaction does not appear in a patient until about two weeks after infection has taken place. Still it is of value because the symptoms of trichinosis readily suggest other diseases, and unless properly differentiated, serious, unnecessary and improper medical and surgical treatment might be undertaken.

WEAK HITTING COSTS HORSES' BALL VICTORY

Dixon Adds Second Triumph Over Chicagoans

Lack of strong hitters offset the good pitching of Murphy, and the Chicago Red Horse nine dropped its second encounter with the Dixon Independents 5 to 0 Sunday afternoon here.

The Independents, with Joe Miller hurling, allowed the Equines four scattered hits. Fritz singled in the first, and Claxton doubled in the second. In the third Petraitis rapped a single and Murphy reached first on a single in the fifth.

The locals' big inning came in the sixth. A decision by Umpire Trotter allowed Kays to remain on first, when both the runner and the catcher interfered with the ball, and this break for the locals was followed by timely hitting by Windmiller and Lebre who slammed a double and a single. Kuhn hit his fourth blow in as many trips before side was retired in that frame.

Devoid of Action

The game was devoid of any sensational playing by either side. The visitors completed a double play from Fritz, Hamilton to Petraitis in the first inning, to retire the side. The locals made ten hits off Pitcher Murphy who lost his enthusiasm after the fatal sixth, four runs coming in the seventh and two in the first stanza.

Huey Completes His State Dictatorship

Baton Rouge, July 8.—(AP)—

The legislature in a whirlwind special session approved early today 25 measures giving Senator Huey Long virtually every remaining power of the state.

The new laws took care of odds and ends not acted on in six other special sessions held since last summer. They left the state almost no government except that dictated by the senator.

A few of the rights given to Long's organization follow:

1. The control of elections.
2. Command of an army.
3. Authority over all non-elective governmental employees.
4. Supervisory powers over all state, parish and local finances.
5. Hiring and firing privileges over school teachers.
6. Power to spend state money for any purposes.

Ruling Against State Insurance Powers Will Be Appealed Says Atty.

Springfield, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—An appeal will be taken from a ruling of the Sangamon county circuit court holding unconstitutional the insurance agents and brokers licensing acts.

Attorney General Otto Kerner today announced he would make the appeal from a recent decision of Circuit Judge L. E. Stone who found the act bestowed arbitrary power upon Insurance Director Ernest Palmer.

If Judge Stone's decision is upheld by the supreme court the attorney general said, the state insurance department would have but slight control over agents and brokers.

FRENCH READY FOR OBSERVANCE OF BASTILLE DAY

Rival Forces Rally Ranks: Troublesome Day May Result

Paris, July 8.—(AP)—Colonel Francois de la Rocque carried warning to thousands of his "Croix de Feu" followers today to stand ready for a "mobilization order" against the leftist front of Communists and Socialists.

The chief of the Nationalist Veterans' organization pressed on by airplane in a country-wide speaking tour as the commanders of opposition "political troops" also rallied for forces for Bastille Day.

Leftist leaders met in Paris to complete their plans for demonstrations next Sunday, the anniversary of the capture of the Bastille prison July 14, 1789, by revolutionists—the French counterpart to America's Independence Day.

De la Rocque warned that his organization may be called to move against their common front "tomorrow, the next day or within a fortnight."

The royalist "King's Henchmen" signalled their return to action yesterday by burning an effigy of the leftist Pierre Cot in the public square at Strassbourg. Cot, former minister of air, is a follower of former Premier Edouard Daladier in the latter's new tie-up with the extreme left.

Mount Morris Man Recalls Giving Abe Lincoln His Water

Mt. Morris—Frisbie Keplinger, one of Mount Morris' oldest residents, observed his 86th birthday on July 4. In commenting on the event he told an interesting story of the Antietam battlefield shortly after that great offensive in 1862 and of giving the great emancipator a drink of water.

It seems Mr. Lincoln, along with Generals Burnside and McClellan, was viewing the battle ground and while so doing, passed the Keplinger home, which was situated in such close proximity that it was riddled with shells and bullets. The president expressed his desire for a drink of water as he approached the homestead and young Keplinger but 14 years of age, supplied his wants, for which he received the personal thanks of the great leader.

U. S. NATATORS TRAINING FOR JAPAN MATCH

Flanagan, 17 Years Old, Bests Medica in the Trials

Detroit, July 8.—(AP)—Fifteen swimming and diving stars, the cream of the contestants in the National A. A. U. championships which closed last night, began training today under Coach Robert Kiphuth of Yale university to represent the United States in a three-day international match with the best natators of Japan.

The meet, which will take place in Tokyo Aug. 17, 18, will follow preliminaries in Osaka, Japan. The American team will sail from San Francisco July 16.

It will include Ralph Flanagan, Miami, Fla.; Jack Medica, Seattle, Wash.; Jack Kasley, Detroit; John Macdonis, Philadelphia; Peter Fick, New York; Matt Chrostowski, Olneyville, R. I.; Jim Gihula, Detroit; John Higgins, Olneyville, R. I.; Ray Kaye, Detroit; Danny Zehr, Chicago; Paul Wolfe, Los Angeles; Art Lindgren, Los Angeles; Taylor Drysdale, Detroit; and Russell Branch, Olneyville, R. I., in the swimming events and Dick Degener, Detroit, in the diving events.

Flanagan, a 17-year-old high school boy, handed Medica his third straight defeat of the meet. The west coast flash, defending three titles, dropped two of them to Flanagan, who nosed him out in the 880-yard free style and the mile event. Medica lost the 440-yard free style to Macdonis, a Yale University student.

Flanagan was clocked in the 880-yard race at 10:07.6, which was an unofficial world mark for the long course. Medica holds the listed world and American long-course record of 10:15.4.

Acute Alcoholism is Fatal to an Officer

Battle Creek, Mich., July 8.—(AP)—A man identified as Harry D. Liebow, about 40 years old, a special Deputy Sheriff of Waukegan, Ill., died in the city jail last night a few minutes after his arrest for drunkenness. Coroner Willard N. Putman said death was due to acute alcoholism. Police said they found the man lying in the street.

"LAWYER-CRIMINAL" OBJECT FEDERAL DRIVE

Attorney General Reports Progress in Cleaning House

Atlantic City, N. J., July 8.—(AP)—Attorney General Homer S. Cummings reported progress against the type of criminal lawyer who has become a "lawyer-criminal."

Cummings addressed the International Association of Chiefs of Police. "It is a satisfaction to be able to report that real progress is being made in the effort to rid the legal profession of its unscrupulous members," he said.

"There are some members of the bar, as I am well aware, who take the position that derelictions from professional ethics should not be made a subject for public discussion. "As far as I am concerned, I do not for a moment believe in remaining silent when such outrageous conduct comes to notice. Because its members are supposed to be officers of the court, if not in protection of its own standing and prestige, the legal profession is under regular obligations to keep its own ranks as clean as the statutes and the powers of the various bar associations can render them."

KANSAS CITY TENNIS STAR RETAINS SKILL

Chicago, July 8.—(AP)—Wilbur Coen, Jr., went back to his business affairs in Kansas City today with the Western singles title trophy to show for his only major tennis tournament play in two years.

The youthful veteran appeared to have lost little of his courts cunning yesterday as he defeated John McDiarmid of Fort Worth, Tex., 6-4, 6-2, 6-2, in the championship match. He was much too steady for the Texan.

Katherine Wolf of Elkhart, Ind., demonstrating all round superiority, easily defeated Eunice Dean of Houston, Tex., 6-0, 6-3, for the women's title.

Coen, paired with William Kiley of Kansas City, shared in the doubles championship victory over Sin Kie Kho, Chinese Davis Cup player, and Lewis D. Carson of Shanghai, China, by 6-0, 6-4, 7-5 scores. Miss Wolf and Miss Dean teamed up to defeat Helen Fulton and Mrs. Eugene Sampson of Winnetka, 6-1, 6-3, for women's doubles honors.

WOMEN STARS WILL QUALIFY FOR TOURNEY

Chicago, July 8.—(AP)—A crack field of younger stars faced the 18 hole qualifying round of the women's Western golf association junior championship tournament today at the Westmoreland Country club.

In the absence of Shirley Ann Johnson, Chicago, the 1934 winner who has passed the 18 year age limit, a half dozen players were regarded as prospects for the finals. Included in the favored group were Hilda Livengood of Danville, Ill., the Illinois state champion; Ella Mae Williams of Chicago, runner-up in the state tournament; Josephine Soucek, Chicago, and Olive Ann Anderson of Kenosha, Wis., who won the 1933 title.

The low 16 in today's qualifying test will go into match play tomorrow, with the championship round Friday.

HOPKINS FAILS IN TRANSFERRING UNEMPLOYABLES

The Administration's Announced Plans Have Miscarried Badly

Washington, July 8.—(AP)—Acknowledging that little progress has been made in actually transferring "unemployables" from Federal relief to the care of the states, relief officials said today that about 4,000,000 such persons still are on the Federal rolls.

This number, which is about one fifth of the persons depending in whole or part on Federal relief activities for support, is roughly the same as it was last December.

At that time Harry L. Hopkins, now Works Progress Administrator, enunciated a policy that all persons physically or mentally incapable of work must be returned to the care of states by last Feb. 1.

Later Hopkins modified his requirement. Funds for unemployables would be loaned states and cities unable to take over the responsibility, he said. Later he abandoned the attempt for the time, and officials said they expected the administration's security program to provide for most of the dependent children and aged.

See Year's Delay
The measure, however, still is in a congressional conference and it is expected that a year or more will be required to place it in operation.

Officials said Hopkins now plans to supply most of the food and clothing required by the unemployables even after they are returned to the care of local governments. There is little prospect of their ceasing to be a Federal burden until the work relief program peak is reached around November 1, it was indicated.

Then the twin moves—providing jobs for those able to work, and transferring the others to local care—will carry out President Roosevelt's desire to "end this business of relief," officials said.

GREAT GOLF By Art Krenz

The worst licking that Bobby Jones ever took was a 12-11 defeat administered by Walter Hagen. It was in a 72-hole match played at Sarasota and Pasadena, Fla., in 1926.

In that match the ball was rolling for the Haig. He was missing tee shots and dubbing irons, but still scoring birdies by marvelous putting.

I recall the sixth hole at the Whitfield course at Sarasota. Jones had won the fifth and cut Hagen's lead to three up. On the sixth Bobby whacked one down the center. Walter, who had missed all but one tee shot again shoved one into the rough, where he was partly stymied by a tree.

Then he topped his second, and the ball skipped and hopped. But the overspin caused the ball to roll through a yawning trap and run to within 12 feet of the hole.

Bobby's short pitch landed a few feet outside of Walter's and he putted first, rimmed the cup, and laid Hagen a neat styler.

But, with remarkable accuracy, the Haig putted his ball past Jones to the left of the cup, where it hung a second and dropped. The Haig had picked up another hole.

In short strokes, as in longer ones, the club must be taken back slowly. If the backswing is hurried it often results in a stabbed effort.

SUN-TAN

CHAPTER I

JO DARIEN straightened from the trunk she was packing and regarded her roommate with disap-prisal.

"Haven't you any packing to do, Tubby?" she asked.

Tubby Davis nodded. Dark and complacently burly, Tubby sat on the window ledge swinging her ample legs continuously. At about every tenth crack of high heels against the woodwork she took a chocolate from the disheveled box in her lap and popped it into her mouth.

"I've got all of it to do," Tubby announced, making away with a chocolate. "I haven't even asked like to get my trunk up from the basement. But I'd rather watch you, Jo. You're so darned industrious and neat that I thought maybe I could learn how it ought to be done."

Jo laughed. "Well, I wish you'd start. You're making me nervous and throwing me off form."

Tubby's legs ceased swinging.
 "That's the first time you've cracked a smile today. You had me worried. You know, I think you actually hate to see school close for the summer."

"I do," Jo said. "It's fun here.
 The other shrunken. Sure. But vacation's more fun, and we'll all be back soon enough."

Jo met Tubby's good-natured eyes, seemed about to speak, and then went on with her packing silently.

"Well," Tubby remarked, slipping down off the window ledge. "I suppose I'd better start getting my stuff together, at that. Mind if I have my trunk brought up now, or would you rather I wait until you're finished?"

"You won't disturb me at all, Jo told her. "I'm almost through anyway." She knew very well that it would be several hours before Tubby got around to telephoning the handy man to bring her trunk upstairs. Tubby would saunter in at the first open doorway down the hall, sit down with her box of chocolates, and begin a new conversation.

From the hallway there drifted to Jo the disconnected sounds of half a dozen "gabfests"—punctuated with occasional bursts of carefree laughter. Her sorority sisters were all excited about school being over, and about their plans for the summer. Only the seniors seemed quieter than usual, possibly because they realized they had the world to face now and weren't returning to the friendly campus.

And Jo Darien could understand how they felt, even though this was only her first year at the university.

"My first—and only—year," Jo thought.

WEARILY she left her packing and went to her desk where a letter lay open between the pages of "Freshmen Readings in English Literature." Once again she read the letter, but revealing lines from her mother.

"Dear Jo, I haven't written you for some time, partly because there was so little to write about, and partly because it's hard to write what I must tell you now.

"I'm enclosing a little check for your fare home. We're both so anxious to see our sweet daughter again. Much love from Mother."

But there was no "little check" folded with the letter now. The check was sealed in an envelope which lay stamped on Jo's desk, addressed to Mrs. Arthur L. Darien.
 With it was a long letter which had cost Jo the better part of the morning. She had made her decision quickly—but it had been harder to write it in a letter, to tell her parents that she wasn't coming home for the summer.

"Until Dad gets adjusted again I'd better do some shifting for myself," she wrote.
 "You've been grand to keep me in school. You've been grand to keep

There was something in Jo Darien's blond beauty that reflected the windswept freedom of the sea . . . brave and clean and breathless.

"As you know, Jo, there wasn't much left after the sale of your father's store. By the time he had paid the bills he owed, and the back taxes on the house, there was even less than he planned. Of course it would have worked out all right if he had received the appointment he was promised. But your Uncle Frank isn't in the same department as he was at the state house, and since being transferred he doesn't seem to have anything to say about who shall have a job.
 His last letter to your father was anything but encouraging."

"I've held off telling you these things because there was nothing you could do about them; but now that school is about over and you will be coming home for the summer I thought you should know how things stand. Only be sure not to let on to your father that you know. It's better to have him tell you himself."

Bordens, Knacks Topple D-X Oils, Millways By Identical Scores, 5-3

The First Meeting of Knacks, Millways This Summer

Bordens and Knacks softball teams won over their rivals, the D-X Oils and Millways respectively, by identical 5 to 3 scores Sunday night at the Airport. The game between the Knacks and the Millways was their first meeting of the summer, all other scheduled games between them having been rained out.

The game looked like a walkaway for the Bordens in their tussle with the Oils men when in the first inning they landed on Shurtner for three hits and three runs. The D-Xers picked up a run in the second but were unable to overcome the Millmen's lead until their last chance in the opening of the seventh when they pushed home Shurtner on a double by Ankeny. The latter's first hit of the evening in four trips. In the last of the seventh however, Fane doubled, and Soup Holland scored him with a two bagger bringing home Russ Watts also.

MILLWAYS HIT SKIDS
The Millway Chix were shoved down a notch in the league standings by virtue of their defeat at the hands of the Knacks Leaders whom they met for the first time Sunday night.

The Chix haven't been doing so well lately and weak hitting cost them a much needed victory. Despite their inability to get past Clerk's baffling delivery, they did sell enough in the field, climaxing their performance there with a sparkling double play from Courtwright, Kays to Witzleb to retire the side and prevent Clark and Bones Carlson from scoring.

The double play probably nullified two more Knacks runs as Clark had reached third on a triple and Carlson had been allotted a walk. Riley, a moment later was allowed to reach first and fill the bags on a fielder's choice. The best effort of the Millways at bat was a hard homer deep into the center field by Courtwright who wasted no time circling the paths. All of the Chix three runs were scored in the fourth.

DIZZY PITCHES WAY OUT OF HIS BASEBALL ILLS

Frisch Discovers it Hard To Be Angry With "Great One"

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
One of the most annoying things about Frank Frisch's job of managing the Cardinals must be that it's so hard to stay angry at Dizzy Dean.

The elder brother of the famous pitching pair was developed quite a habit of getting himself in wrong with the manager and the fans by displays of temper, but each time he pitches his way back into their good grace.

Yesterday Ditz relieved Jess Haines in the fourth inning of the opening game against the Reds—his first appearance after his recent exhibition game "rebellion" at St. Paul. Old Diz checked the Cincinnati rally and gave only three hits through the rest of the game while the Cards won 9 to 4. Brother Paul followed him and outpitched

Paul Derringer with the aid of enemy errors for a 5 to 1 victory.

The double triumph settled the Cards firmly in second place, seven games behind the Giants, who recovered from two defeats to trim Brooklyn 9 to 2. Mel Ott's 18th home run, made with the bases full, played a big part in the Giant victory which finally brought Carl Hubbell his tenth victory of the season.

Regain Third Place

The Cubs regained third place, pounding Cy Blanton and four Pittsburgh hurlers for 14 hits, and winning, 13 to 1, as Bill Lee gave only seven blows. The Phillies completed a shakeup in the standing by trouncing the Braves 9 to 1 behind Curt Davis's six-hit flinging and moving into sixth place ahead of Cincinnati.

The Tigers continued to dominate the American League by slamming down the Browns 12 to 5, although they were outbatted 15-14. Julius Solters walloped three home runs to account for all the St. Louis tallies. It was the tenth straight victory for Detroit, but it failed to reduce the Yankees' one-game margin. The league leaders bowled over the Senators 11 to 1, with Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri each hitting a homer.

The other clubs broke even in doubleheaders without altering the standings. Chicago's rapidly recovering White Sox downed Cleveland

2 to 0 with a sensational fielding display behind Ted Lyons. They extended their winning streak to seven straight and Cleveland's string of losses to eight, but the Indians broke both strings with a 7 to 6 triumph in the loosely played afterpiece.

Lefty Grove relief hurling and Bill Werber's flashy base running enabled the Red Sox to take a 13-inning opener from the Athletics 7 to 6. Philadelphia replied with a 3 to 1 victory on homers by Pinky Higgins and Charles Berry. The Sunday law ended this game after the eighth inning.

PITCHED NO HIT GAME

Effingham, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—Veling, pitcher for the Effingham Ushers, today had credit for a non-hit, no-run game. He defeated the Flora Merchants, 2 to 0, yesterday without allowing a hit and struck out twelve.

SCHMELING ADDS UZZUDUN SCALP; COMEBACK BOUT

Teuton Finds Rival Tougher Than He Expected

Berlin, July 8.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, the dark visaged slugger of Germany, has added Paulino Uzcudun to his list of victims but has lost prestige in the eyes of Naziistic followers.

The German battered the Spanish wood chopper around a Berlin ring for 12 rounds yesterday, bruised and cut his face, but failed to even knock him to his knees.

Instead of crumpling, as enthusiastic Nazis thought he would, Uzcudun continually moved within the long arms of Schmeling and belted his body with short rights and lefts. Several times he drove the former champion into the ropes.

Schmeling, who weighed 192½, as against 203 for his opponent, claimed he had been struck a low blow in the sixth round that sapped his strength and decreased his effectiveness during the late rounds. The crowd of 65,000, including high Nazi officials, which had cheered lustily when Schmeling entered the ring, accorded him only mild applause as he left the ring after his uninspiring victory.
